Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from An Address Delivered at Oregon, Missouri Proclaim Liberty throughout all the land, and unto all the inhabitants thereof. - Lev. xxv. - 10. Ladies and Gentlemen: We read that after the children of Israel had escaped from the most galling bondage in Egypt, and after the Lord of hosts had triumphed gloriously over those who despised the sentiment that all men are created free and equal, and the horse and rider had been thrown into the sea, and after right had prevailed over might in the very morning of the world, and those who had escaped from the thralldom of the Egyptian task masters had sung their songs of joy on the banks of their deliverance, the great law giver Moses received from the Deity, not only that higher law upon which is based the Christian s faith, but also that code which all civilized nations have directly, or indirectly recognized as the one by which the world can be governed. It was then that the command which I have read to you, came pure and spotless from the mouth of God himself, when he spoke to Moses from amidst the fire and smoke and awful thunders of Sinai, commanding him to hallow the fiftieth year and proclaim liberty throughout all the land, and unto all the inhabitants thereof.
