Excerpt: . husband; for, in the first place, she has but little fortune; and if she were once married to his son, I dare swear the old gentleman would never forgive the disappointment of his love. Ram. And is the old gentleman in love? Lap. Oh, profoundly delightfully oh that you had but seen him as I have; with his feet tottering, his eyes watering, his teeth chattering his old trunk was shaken with a fit of love just as if it had been afit of an ague. Ram. He will have more cold fits than hot I believe. Lap. Is it not more advantageous for him to have a mother-in-law that should open his father s heart to him, than a wife that would shut it against him? Besides, it will be better for us all; for if the husband were as covetous as...
