Golden Valley Gems. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 360 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.8in. Two Buttes, Colorado Eighteen-year-old Marion Kilpatrick watches Dr. William Verity as he makes his way around town. She sees him through the schoolhouse window as he leaves on his rounds. She hears people talk of the near-miraculous results of some of his surgeries. She wants to be like him in his abilities to help people. She wants to become a doctor. The year is 1930, an early Dust Bowl year, a year when such a dream breaks the rules for young ladies. The story takes place in Two Buttes, Colorado, a town with energetic and friendly people but a very challenging climate. Marion meets a new young man at community band practice. His name is Bland Vaughn, a school teacher whose family farm neighbors her parents farm. Marion enjoys the interest he expresses by introducing himself and seeming to want her company. Their families meet for the first time at a family dinner, and Marion and Bland spend time together. The relationship with Bland becomes difficult, Bland seemingly uncomfortable with her ideas, her faith, and her doctor dream, but Marion misses him, and wonders why he periodically disappears from her life. She shares her dream of becoming a doctor, first with her twin sister, then with her father, then with Bland, but finds no encouragement. Dr. Verity, the founder of the band, and beloved community doctor, offers her an opportunity she hadn't imagined, and her dream becomes a possibility. Parental disapproval dashes her hope. Hope seems restored when Bland proposes marriage to her. Will her disappointment propel her into marriage Oregon Did you ever wonder what it might be like to live on the farm Wonder no more. Seizing the Treasure: Nuggets of Vaughn-Kilpatrick Story by Marjorie Vaughn-Eldred...
