

Building a Pathway for Student Learning: A How-to Guide to Course Design (Paperback)

By Steven K. Jones, Robert K. Noyd, Kenneth S. Sagendorf

Stylus Publishing, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 279 x 216 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. This book leads you through the process of designing a learning-centered course. It is written as a how-to handbook, providing step-by-step guidance on creating a pathway to student learning, including 26 workboxes (also available free online) that lead you through each element of the course design process and promote a rich reflection process akin to being in a workshop setting. The authors prompt you to (1) consider the distinctive characteristics of your students; (2) clearly articulate your course learning goals; (3) create aligned summative assessments; (4) identify the specific knowledge, skills, and attitudes students will need in order to be successful; (5) craft effective learning experiences, informed by the well-documented research on how people learn; and (6) incorporate formative assessment to ensure you and your students are staying on track. Completion of the sequence of worksheets leads to a poster as a visual display of your course design. This graphic depiction of your course ties the components together, provides a clear map of action for teaching your course, for modifying as you evaluate the success of particular strategies or want to...

Reviews

A top quality ebook as well as the typeface used was interesting to see. It usually fails to charge an excessive amount of. Once you begin to read the book, it is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding.
