Basically no phrases to clarify. It really is written in straightforward phrases rather than hard to understand. You will not sense monotony at any moment of your own time (that's what catalogues are for concerning if you ask me).

Excerpt: more than glad as we look out into the future, it seems to me that here is the place, and now is the time to record the great fact that a member of the Grand Army of the Republic has produced a national patriotic hymn; a hymn that can be sung anywhere and everywhere, North, South, East, West. Beginning with a reference to the time when the morning stars sang together, and the sons of God shouted for joy, it comes down to the consideration of that glorious thought, the union of the North and South. In one stanza we have the atonement: 10, thou ensign of Peace! Lifted up thou wilt draw The Stars and the Bars to thy train, With atonement wet by the crimson jet Of the loving and loyal slain; Lo, the voice of the Son, Tis finished! Tis done! The North and South ire At One In the Banner of Beauty and Glory, forever. We learn upon going to press that a National Hymn Committee was appointed at the last National Encampment convening at Louisville, Ky., with powers to negotiate with the Sons of the Confederacy at their convention, held at Nashville, Tenn., Juue last, with the view of securing the adoption of this National Hymn by that body. The results of the Committee s action have not been made known.--Editor., Every patriotic Son of Veteran will unite in saying let us have such a hymn. It is truly a...
