

The World's Congress of Religions: With an Introduction (Classic Reprint) (Paperback)

By Rev Minot J Savage

Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The World's Congress of Religions: With an Introduction The World's Parliament of Religions was formally opened in the Art Palace of the World's Columbian Exposition at Chicago on the 11th of September, 1893, and closed on the evening of the 27th of September, having been in session seventeen days. For the first time in the history of the world, representative men, admitted to be the authentic exponents of their various creeds, assembled together fraternally, not for polemical purposes, but to listen each to the other in elucidation of what appears to him religious truth. Gathered on the large rostrum in the Hall of Columbus were men of all nations, all types and races, and of all religions. From far-away India, from the snow-locked crests of the Himalayas, from the valleys of the Tigris and Euphrates, the representatives of a race and country old and decrepit with age clasped hands with a race now in the vigor of manhood. The oldest religions in the world greeted with friendship the youngest. It was fitting...

READ ONLINE
[5.09 MB]

Reviews

This ebook will be worth buying. It usually fails to charge too much. You will not sense monotony at any time of your time (that's what catalogs are for regarding when you check with me).

-- Retha Frami V

This book is definitely not easy to get going on reading but extremely entertaining to learn. It is actually filled with knowledge and wisdom I am very easily will get a delight of reading a composed ebook.

-- Krystina Breitenberg