When she appeared he told her that he wanted to see Mrs. Doggs at once. Called his attention to the limp. In a minute Mrs. Doggs, looking pale and distraught, came limping in and Combs called Mr. Dee s attention to the limp. See, said he while Dee nodded, the welltrained bird, carrying out the instructions of his master the diabolical Hennery, got Gregory the husband first and then went after Maggie the wife, but she ran in terror and the bird could only get a chance to peck her foot as she escaped. Both Mr. and Mrs. Doggs were doubtless awakened by the hen breaking its way in through a window in search of trouble and so the hen could not carry out the original purpose, which was doubtless, to peck them to death in their sleep. Turning sternly to Mrs. Doggs,...
