This guide is not only a motivational read for audiences, but can also function as a devotional; the author provides a personal testimony, further inspiring readers towards perseverance. The introduction is personalized and effectively informs readers of the author's intent with the book. Lists in the reading contain transitions, allowing readers to anticipate breakdowns of scriptural material. The author pulls from his personal testimonial to connect with the readers. Such messages are timeless and will uplift any reader to follow suit. These biblical accounts and the author's personal testimonial are designed to allow each reader to find his/her ordeal in one of them. The readers should keep the book's title (When You Feel Like GIVING UP, DON T!!!) in mind as they read each chapter. It is hoped that the reader will come to the conclusion that if God did it for them, then surely He will do it for me. God is no respecter of person.
