Outskirts Press, United States, 2012. Hardback. Book Condition: New. 218 x 142 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. Raised Southern is a simple story of the Philip and Opal Harrison family beginning in the mid 1940 s to the late 1960 s. Happiness is the main theme as the four Harrison brothers; Jerry, Larry, Don and Johnny grew up poor but never realized that poor people were supposed to be unhappy. The pranks that all family members were guilty of are included, because none were malicious. Instead, the laughter only strengthened family devotion. Dad was occasionally the guilty party. Once, while visiting with Mom s brother, Ocie, and his family, Dad managed to slip a rubber wiener in Uncle Ocie s hot dog bun. About the second bite, he chewed on this difficult wiener and got condiments smeared on his face. He immediately turned to Dad, and yelled, PHILIP! All of us nearly fell on the floor with laughter. The love and laughter from this meal will be remembered a lifetime. The trips the family took were made with a minimum of cost. One of the longest took the Harrisons, along with Uncle Ocie...
